SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Possession of Heroin/Liquor violations:

On 9/11/2024 at approximately 3pm Farmington Public Safety officers were dispatched to the area of Farmington and Cloverdale for a suspicious vehicle. While investigating the vehicle Farmington Officers noticed a white male in his 40's walking away from the vehicle. Officers noticed the male subject was walking with an open container of alcohol concealed in a brown paper bag. Officers detained the male subject and learned that he had multiple felony and misdemeanor warrants out of other jurisdictions. While taking the male into custody officers located suspected heroin on the male's person. The subject was placed under arrest for possession of suspected heroin, open intoxicants, as well as his warrants.

Vehicle fire:

On 9/14/2024 at approximately 1:15pm Farmington Public Safety was dispatched to a possible vehicle fire in Chatham Hills Subdivision. Officers arrived to find the vehicle smoking with visible flames coming from the engine compartment. Officers donned their turn out gear and quickly extinguished the vehicle fire.
